Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

'Kingdom Economics'

If you think that all the parables which Jesus told were nice stories about people of integrity then today's parable will surely make you think again. This is a parable about a scoundrel, yet it praises him and his wisdom.

The manager has been given notice by his CEO and he decides to even up the tables, while he still can, for those who are struggling to pay their debts to the company. The manager is praised for his astuteness, he has his priorities straight, he is happy to let debt go, to redistribute the load. Of course, there is self-interest on his part but Jesus is telling us that the only value the money really has is in the way it is disposed of and in doing this the manager wins the hearts and minds of the workers.

The manager won't be the most successful man on the planet compared to the 'children of the light' who are more concerned with accounts than with real people. The manager is free-spirited and can be trusted to value what is really important. He knows that none of this material wealth is permanent and uses the authority that he had to relieve the suffering of those who are indebted to his company. Yes, he is a bit of a scoundrel, but Jesus liked scoundrels, once their efforts were put to good use.

'God's dream for creation is different from Pharaoh's dream or Rome's dream or Wall Street's dream. And at the centre of God's economy is the idea of redistribution... It is an invitation to Holy mischief!'

First Reading Amos 8:4-7

The prophet Amos was a fervent champion of the poor, the downtrodden and the oppressed of his day. In this reading, he condemns the exploitation of the poor. He warns his listeners to treat others justly and to be aware of the evils of greed— a message which is as pertinent today as it was in the time of Amos.

Second Reading 1 Timothy 2:1-8

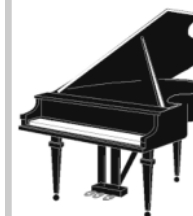

Paul encourages us in this passage from his first letter to Timothy to think of others and to pray for them, especially for those in authority— again, this advice applies as much in the world we live in today as it did when Paul wrote this letter to Timothy.

Gospel Reading Luke 16:1-13

In today's Gospel, we hear Jesus tell us frankly that we cannot be slaves of God and money. He invites us to make definite and prudent choices about which master to follow in our lives. Each of us are stewards of the gifts God has given to us and Jesus gently but firmly reminds us that we have a great responsibility entrusted to us to use those gifts properly and faithfully.
