Twenty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

The vocation of a Franciscan Missionary Sister for Africa is to be a woman of faith, consecrated to God in a community of love, joy and simplicity. Impelled by the love of Christ, he is ready to be sent on mission. She responds with courage and zeal to the real needs of the people wherever she is on Mission. She approaches the people of God with reverence so that together they may grow in the fullness of the Gospel.

The Franciscan Missionary Sisters for Africa, who work on mission in Uganda, Kenya, South Sudan, Zambia and Zimbabwe, will visit the Parish at all Holy Masses on the 14th/15th September. They will speak about their work and present needs and make an appeal for your prayers and support.

Reflection for weekend of the 7th & 8th Sept

We explore the Church Year – a whole year with God. With the “church year”, the Church essentially repeats the core of the life of Jesus in an annual rhythm. To participate in the Church’s year therefore means to participate in the life of Jesus – from His imminent arrival (Advent) to His birth (Christmas), His final meal with the disciples (Holy Thursday), His death (Good Friday), His resurrection from the dead (Easter Sunday) to the sending of the Holy Spirit (Pentecost). 2 periods of preparation lead us to the high points of the Church year: the Advent season prepares the hearts for the arrival of the human person of Christ; Lent teaches us to repent, so that we too become transformed by Easter. The feasts of the saints lead us to Jesus too. Each day of the year, the Church draws our focus on parts of Sacred Scripture and offers us the “bread of life”. Actively to participate in the Church’s year, is not only a wonderful experience – it is a highway to Jesus and leads us to the heart of the Church. Finally Pope Benedict XVI tells us: “The whole church year, the Lord is travelling with us and explains Scripture to us. Let us comprehend this mystery: everything speaks of Him. And that should make our hearts burn too, so that our eyes may be opened (Lk 24:32). The Lord is with us, He shows us the true way”. Brought to you by the Diocesan Pastoral Council
