Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Deep End - 'The Host with the Most'

Which one are you? Its' such a familiar story. Think of the last time you had had friends or family over for a meal or a gathering. Were you more of a Mary or a Martha? Many of us fall more easily into one category than the other - the 'host with the most' who is always up to their eyes with the cooking and catering and table clearing; or the chatterer who is happy to leave the washing up until later?

At face value, I don't think Jesus is saying we shouldn't be hospitable and look after our guests, offering them food or drinks. Like many, I really feel for Martha in this story. She had welcomed Jesus into her home, was looking after him and busying herself with serving him, while her sister was too busy listening to Jesus to offer to help. It is no wonder that Martha complained. After all, someone had to do the practical work. Martha may have wanted to spend time with her guest too – but then, who would have served him?

The key is in Jesus's words. He does not criticise Martha for her efforts, but rather gently rebukes her for 'worrying and fretting about so many things'. She is so distracted and bogged down in her work that she has forgotten to spend time with Jesus. This is familiar territory for many of us. We are often distracted and busy. Do we make space to sit at the Lord's feet and listen? Can we take time each day, perhaps, for a Scripture reading?

Baptisms: We welcome into our Christian community Evie Olivia Allen, Deerpark, who was baptised recently.

Recently Deceased:
 Sr Emmanuel Kilkelly, Sisters of Mercy, Southknock. Betty Ronan, Irishtown.

Anniversaries: We remember in our prayers this weekend Mary Dale, Irishtown, Tom Shine and Vincent Leahy, Charleville

First Reading: Genesis 18:1-10

An act of warm hospitality towards three strangers from Abraham and his wife Sarah leads to a great blessing that reverberates through the generations, reminding us of the importance of a spirit of generosity towards those unknown to us.

Second Reading: Colossians 1:24-28

Paul shows his willingness to cheerfully suffer in order to bring God's message and Christ' hope to those who had previously been thought of as beyond salvation.

Gospel: Luke 10:38-42

The memorable image of the two sisters, Mary and Martha one listening carefully to the lord and the other bustling in care for their guest, represent the two vital aspects of Christian discipleship, reflection leading to action.

HYMNS IN HARMONY again.

Singing is good for you. Everyone is welcome to come and sing favourite hymns on Sunday July 24th at 7.30 in St. Mary's. There will be a retiring collection for the benefit of the Church Repairs Fund. This church is founded on the oldest building in the town and is an important historical site. Last year the fund-raiser, HYMNS IN HARMONY was a great success, so this is a repeat of that evening. If you have a favourite that you would like included, please contact Connie Tantrum at 051-421766 this week, and give the reason for your choice. Refreshments will be served after the singing.

Weddings: Congratulations and best wishes to Cormac Furlong & Tara Purcell who were married recently.
