Eucharistic Adoration takes place in our Parish every Tuesday, beginning after 10.00am Mass and concluding with Solemn Benediction at 9.00pm

Sanctuary Lamp: Special Intention.

Today’s Readings.
In Matthew’s Gospel, Jesus herald’s God’s Kingdom by parables and preaching, by mercy and miracles, but above all by his own passion, death and resurrection.

First Reading
Isaiah 50:4-7

Chapters 40-55 Isaiah date from 550 BC, the end of the Babylonian captivity, and feature the songs of the Servant of Yahweh. God is ready to make a pathway through the wilderness and lead his people home. But they reject the Servant’s vision. They prefer to remain in the state to which they have become accustomed. They vilify the Servant, who nonetheless remains true to his calling.

Second Reading
Philippians 2:6-11

One of the earlier writings of the New Testament (c.57AD) includes this even earlier hymn on the nature of Christ. The Word of God emptied itself into humanity in Jesus, and even shared our mortal fate. This downward movement was followed by Christ’s exaltation and sovereignty over all creation. By imitating the self-gifting mindset of Jesus we also share in his victory over sin and death.
