Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Deep End • What is Mission?

What does it mean to be a missionary? I have held to a variety of definitions since I first identified myself as one. When I first went out 'on mission', it was clear to me that mission was strictly limited to making disciples of all nations, to bring people in to the faith. During my first long term placement in Uganda I met my husband, who identified as a missionary, but shockingly he was a carpenter, and had never led a single Bible study. Could he truly be a missionary if his day to day work was (as I saw it) so mundane?

As I watched how he gave all of himself to build beautiful, strong buildings that would benefit so many people, my eyes were opened. He developed quality relationships with the builders he worked with, and the skills he taught them completely transformed their lives. And it was all motivated by his faith in Jesus.

On return to Europe I struggled with no longer being a missionary. I couldn't see how I could honestly respond 'I will go', and mean it, because I wasn't going anywhere!

So I redefined (again!) my concept of mission. For me, mission is bringing about the kingdom of God, wherever we find ourselves in the world. I will go, even if 'go' means 'stay'.

Sanctuary Lamp: Special Intentions

Today's Readings.

God gives us the gift of repentance. In the parable of the two sons, Jesus holds up the example of the public sinners in his time being converted while the establishment figures refuse to listen to his message. Ezekiel reminds us that repentance is always possible, for the Lord remembers his mercy .

First Reading

Ezekiel 18:25-28

Ezekiel's teaching centres on inner conversion; a new heart and a new spirit. It invites us to awareness of who we are and what we are. This is premised on knowing the God of mercy and forgiveness. In fact, when it comes to sin and our turning away from it God suffers from amnesia!

Second Reading

Philippians 2:1-11

There is an urging in this reading to stay united: 'be united in your convictions and united in your love, with a common purpose and a common mind.' Unity is to be found in our belief in Christ and in the Spirit that is with us.

We are now currently booking Masses up to and including March 2018

The Irish Trust Pilgrimage to Lourdes Easter 2018

Do you know of any young person with special needs who would like to travel to Lourdes for a week next Easter 1st-7th April 2018? The Irish Pilgrimage Trust is looking for young people with a physical disability, challenge or illness (aged 11-18 and 18-30), a learning disability (aged 11-21 and 22-30) or a child with a serious illness up to age 11 accompanied by a parent/guardian, to travel with them as "Guests" to Lourdes next year. The Trust also have spaces for those young people who do not have a disability but whom the Trust believes would benefit from the experience (aged 11-15) These might be young people who have had a particularly tough time in their young lives, through bereavement or family hardship of some kind or another.

Application forms are freely available but must be returned each year by the end of October.

If selected to travel the Young people and in the case of the family group, the child (under 11) and one adult, travel free.

For more information or for a "Guest application form" go to our website: www.theirishpilgrimagestrust.com
