TODAYS READINGS

First Reading

Deuteronomy 18:15-20

In this reading, Moses tells the people that when he dies, God will appoint another prophet for them, someone who will speak the truth and lead them to the truth. Moses is the only leader they have known and, beginning to feel insecure at his impending death, they wonder how they can distinguish between a true prophet and a false prophet. As has been his way, Moses encourages his people to live in keeping with God's teaching.

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 7:32-35

Today we get a glimpse into how Paul sees his mission. Sensing the approach of a time of struggle and feeling that time is running out, Paul urges the people of Corinth not to let anything get in the way of the urgent task of teaching Christ's message, thus furthering the kingdom of God. This they would do by fully dedicating their lives to the Lord and living as he did.

Gospel Reading

Mark 1:21-28

Today's gospel story tells of Jesus' first miracle, which occurs in the sacred place of the synagogue and on the sacred day of the Sabbath. Jesus' teaching is contrasted with the teaching of the scribes. Jesus teaches with the authority of one who is free while the teaching of the scribes is constrained by tradition. The scribes know God's law but Jesus knows God's heart. His listeners are amazed! No one has ever spoken like this before.
