TODAYS READINGS

Through Baptism and Confirmation we have been given the Holy Spirit, that same Spirit who gave Christ the victory over the world. This Advocate is our support in the difficulties of life. The Spirit of truth convinces us of the meaning and value of the Christian way.

First Reading

Acts 10:25-26, 34-35, 44-48

Christ has come for all people. His death and resurrection is a gift to be shared with people in every time and space. St Peter grows in his understanding of the mystery of Christ. As he preaches, the Spirit comes down on his listeners. Sometimes we limit the power of God by our own limitations. Jesus is Lord and his power is alive and active even now.

Second Reading

1 John 4:7-10

St John continues his beautiful reflection on the love of God. To know God is to love and to love is to be in communion with God. God's love has been made known to us in Jesus Christ. God has not remained hidden behind the veil of the temple. It has been rent asunder by Christ's passion and gloriously revealed in his resurrection.

Launch Night of 'The Hook of Faith'
The Hook of Faith is a new website dedicated to the mission of evangelisation in the diocese of Ferns and beyond. It is being launched this coming Tuesday 8th May 2018 at 7.30pm at the Riverside Park Hotel in Enniscorthy. The guest speaker will be Breda O' Brien, journalist with the Irish Times. The website will be launched by Bishop Denis Brennan. All are welcome. "Missionary spirit is not only about geographical territories, but about peoples, cultures and individuals, because the "boundaries" of faith do not only cross places and human traditions, but the heart of each man and each woman." Pope Francis."
