Pentecost Sunday

Have you ever watched a TED Talk? There are thousands available to view online. The powerful talks are generally less than 18 minutes long and cover a huge range of topics, from science to business to social and global issues. There are talks in more than 110 languages, and they are used in schools, businesses and many other settings, to educate, motivate, and open minds. While the speakers come from a variety of backgrounds, the one thing they have in common is their ability to communicate. For every talk I’ve listened to, the speaker has the audience in the palm of their hand. They are gifted communicators, with a passion for a particular subject, and the ability to draw their listeners in.
We often hear that in order to be a good communicator, we have to learn how to speak another person’s language. On the day of Pentecost, when the disciples were filled with the Holy Spirit, each of the people gathered heard them speaking in his or her own language. The ability to communicate and to be understood was the first gift they received from the Holy Spirit. Today, we need the gift of communication more than ever. There are times when we have the opportunity to share our faith, or to witness to others in the way we live our faith. We might feel that we struggle to share our faith in a way that others can understand. In order to meet people where they are, we first need to ‘speak their language’ – to know them, listen to them, and recognise God’s presence in them. The Spirit that came upon the early believers is the same Spirit that guides us today.

Reflection for weekend 8th & 9th June

Next we will explore The 7 Sacraments. The sacraments are 7 meeting points, where God Himself is present, waits for you, blesses you and leads you into the community of the Church. Some sacraments are unique and have a lasting effect on your life, other encounters happen repeatedly. Why do we need the sacraments in the first place? We need the sacraments in order to outgrow our broken human life and to become like Jesus through Jesus: children of God in freedom and glory. In Baptism the fallen children of men become cherished children of God; through Confirmation the weak become strong, committed Christians; through Penance the guilty are reconciled; through the Eucharist the hungry become bread for others; through Matrimony and Holy Orders individualists become servants of love; through the Anointing of the Sick the despairing become people of confidence. The sacrament in all the sacraments is Christ Himself. In Him we humans, lost in selfishness, grow and mature into the true life that has no end. Why is faith in Jesus Christ not enough? Why does God give us the sacraments too? We can and should turn to God with all our senses, not just the intellect. That is why God gives Himself to us in earthly signs – especially in bread and wine, the Body and Blood of Christ. People saw Jesus, heard Him, could touch Him and thereby experience salvation and healing in body and soul. The sensible signs of the sacraments show this same signature of God, who desires to address the whole human – not just his head. Finally a quote from St. Leo the Great (400-461, Pope and Father of the Church): “What was visible in our Saviour has passed over into His mysteries.”
