Reflection for weekend 26th & 27th September 2020

'He who began good work in you will carry it on to completion' (Philippians 1:6).
God chose you anyway. 'You are now fully adopted as his own, an heir, with complete access. You never have to wonder whether it's okay to approach your heavenly Father because He's always ready to welcome you. Your seat is reserved at the table. 'You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies' (Psalm 23:5) That means obstacles and opposition can't rob you of God's blessing. Being 'chosen and appointed' is like having a platinum credit card: you get preferential treatment! But that doesn't give you a licence to live however you please. Some of us might be like the little boy who prayed, 'Lord, make me a good boy. But if you can't, don't worry....I'm having a great time the way I am'! The Lord disciplines those he loves, and ..accepts as a son' (Hebrews 12:6 You are not chosen based on your race, virtues, gifts, talents, looks and intelligence. God chose you because he loves you and has a special plan for your life. And the best part is he is going to strengthen and equip you to fulfil it. (Bob and Debby Gass)
Brought to you by the Diocesan Pastoral Council

THE HOOK OF FAITH THIS WEEK

For the elderly, this time of pandemic has been really difficult. There was and continues to be greater isolation among our senior citizens, especially those in nursing homes and hospitals. This week, we celebrate our elderly and call for a greater awareness by Church and society of those in special need of care and support. We have a homily for the 26th Sunday of Ordinary Time and a very thoughtful video by Bishop Robert Barron on how modern ideas have consequences – where they came from and their impact today. As we enter the missionary month of October, we are reminded of the Zoom Conference on 'Evangelising Irish Culture Today'. Finally, we have a feature on St Therese of Lisieux, the patron saint of the missions, on her feast day on October 1st. Check out these and other resources available at www.thehookoffaith.com
