In the GOSPEL TODAY

COME TO THE PARTY!

The invited guests don't come to the wedding, even though everything is prepared and ready for them. Instead, the king invites people from the streets to celebrate his son's marriage. In the same way, God is inviting us all to enjoy with him!

Party!

Put a circle around all the things that you would like to have at a party.

Parties need people!

Even if we have all these great things, without people we can't have a party on the left.

God invites to join the party in heaven!

Decorate this invitation and fill in your name. Then tell God you will be coming!

Dear God,
 Thank you for your invitation.

will/will not be at your party in heaven.

A PRAYER TO SAY

Lord Jesus, thank you for inviting me to be happy with you. Help me to always say "yes" to you and grow more like you every day. Amen.
