Ss Peter and Paul, Apostles
Matthew 16:13-19

In the
GOSPEL TODAY

WHO AM I?

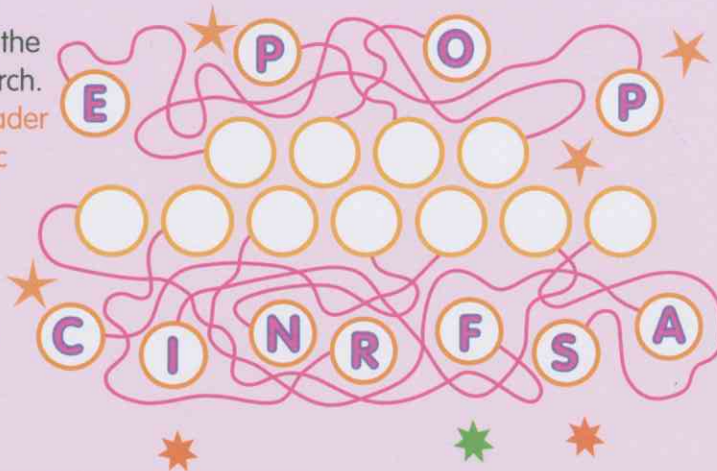

Peter is very happy. He knows that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of the Living God. Jesus is happy. He knows he can trust Peter. Jesus makes Peter the leader of all his friends.

The leader of the Catholic Church

Peter was the first leader of the Christian Church.

Who is the leader of the Catholic Church now?

Jesus' friends, Peter and Paul

Today we remember Saints Peter and Paul.

Both men were followers of Jesus.

Both of them helped spread the Good News.

Can you spot the six differences between Peter and Paul in these pictures?

Follow Jesus

Help cheer up the sad child and follow Jesus to happiness.

What did Jesus ask?

Work out the code to see what Peter answered.

Who do you say I am?

A PRAYER TO SAY

Help me, Jesus, to recognise you and remember that you are my friend. Help me to follow you always. Amen.

Answers: The six differences are a beard, sandals, a belt, a net with fish and scroll, a staff, sleeve. Pope Francis. The Christ of God.
